- o Whitout Title

- o Georges Cazenove / association le forum itinérant / artist run space hors champ

Because words have no sens any more, only usages, Georges Cazenove has decided to distribute only white tracts without any message, to stick up only white posters, and to installe in differents european cities - in a in a global public space which is more and more putted into private hands, polluted by more and more logos and slogans, branding and merchandizing operators - an installation made of white deckchairs, white parasols, white duckboard, a newspapers display shelf and a postcards display shelf... The installation is called "The White Beach / La plage blanche".

In the video "Whitout title", we can see the artist preaparing his installation and performing his action in the public space.

"The White Beach / La plage blanche" was presented in Strasbourg, Annemasse, Marseille (France), Geneva (Switzerland), Thessaloniky (Greece) and Varna (Bulgaria).
